Cathlamet Yacht Club
259 East Birnie Slough
Cathlamet, WA 98612

Dear Commodore, Officers and Members:

Navy Yacht Club Everett is pleased to introduce our Flag Officers for the current year:

Commodore:	Dale Moses	360-385-5530
Vice Commodore:	Mary Baumeier	360-466-1101
Past Commodore:	Wally Davis	425-397-9076

Navy Yacht Club Everett wishes to extend our friendship and offer your club members reciprocal privileges at the Port of Everett guest docks for the 2010 boating season. These privileges will remain in effect as long as your yacht club provides reciprocal privileges to the NYCE. Your courtesy card remains Valid Until Revoked.

The Port of Everett Dock Master controls all moorage at the Port of Everett guest docks. The Dock Master can be contacted via Channel 16, VHF or by calling 425-259-6001.

Our Officers and members extend our best wishes for a safe and pleasant cruising year with fair winds and following seas.

Sincerely,

John Bader

Reciprocal Visit Regulations

1. In these regulations, a “Reciprocal Visitor” is a member of another boating club with which the Navy Yacht Club Everett (NYCE) has established reciprocal visiting privileges.
2. All visitors must check in with the Port of Everett (POE) Dock Master upon arrival. Moorage will be assigned at the POE guest moorage on a first come, first served basis with two slips available for NYCE reciprocals. Visitors are encouraged to check in with the Dock Master via VHF channel 16 or by phone (425-259-6001) prior to arrival.
3. Visitors must show a current membership card when registering and request reciprocal moorage with Navy Yacht Club Everett.
4. A reciprocal visitor shall be allowed 48 consecutive hours of free moorage, and pay a nominal cost for electricity if used. Reciprocal visits are limited to one visit per month per vessel.
5. All visiting vessels must fly their club burgee while moored at the POE guest docks.
6. Potpourri:
 - Gasoline and diesel available at the fuel dock
 - Waste pump out at the fuel dock
 - Washroom, showers, laundry, and porta potti dump stations nearby
 - Numerous restaurants within walking distance
 - Marine supplies and maintenance facilities readily available

ENJOY YOUR VISIT!
