Dear Commodore:

It is with pleasure and continued fellowship that the West Vancouver Yacht Club extends reciprocating privileges with your club for the 2010 boating season. Reciprocal privileges with the West Vancouver Yacht Club will remain in effect until revoked.

Please visit our website at www.wvyc.bc.ca for information about our club and a dock map if you plan to temporarily moor at the club.

Visitors should contact our office, two days before arrival, at 604-921-7575 to ascertain if an open slip is available. Please see accompanying Visitor Mooring information sheet.

The West Vancouver Yacht Club would also like to introduce our Flag Officers for 2010:

Commodore – David Chard
Vice Commodore – Barry Ford
Rear Commodore – John McMynn
Fleet Captain – Richard Alban
Staff Captain – Don Davidson
General Manager – Martin Wale

Outstation Director – John Mears
Secretary – David Dobson
Treasurer – Bruce Chan
Dir of Jr. Activities – Jason Bowman
Past Commodore – Peter McCarthy

The officers and members of the West Vancouver Yacht Club welcome you and your members to our club. We hope you enjoy your visit to our area, and wish you a safe and enjoyable boating season.

Cordially,

Don Davidson
Staff Captain

Temporary Moorage Guidelines

Please leave mooring lines, electrical cables and other personal paraphernalia attached to the dock in good order. It is very frustrating for the permanent occupant to return and find gear in disarray, in the water ort missing.

In case, for reasons beyond our control, your boat has to be moved on short notice please leave a phone number where you can be contacted.

When contacted to move your boat please do so in a timely manner.

Upon vacating the slip please inform the club office should any repairs or maintenance be required.
